about our furniture...

Maple Grove Creations isafamily-owned company dedicated to helping you make the most of your backyard moments with friends and family.

Our products are thoughtfully designed using a wide selection of colors and realistic woodgrain poly lumber by Tangent, combining style with durability. Every metal component is crafted from high-quality stainless steel or aluminum, so you can count on long-lasting performance in any outdoor setting.

Tangent lumber is the most durable poly lumber on the planet. With the toughness to stand up to anything and the aesthetics to stand out from everything, Tangent wood will perform better, last longer and look sharper than any other.
